

Residents of Mishicot were forced to abandon their homes Sunday when flood waters rushed down Main street and surrounded buildings to a depth of several feet. The overflow shown here is from the East Twin river in Manitowoc county.